DECLARATION

STEP 1 | Declaring any offence, accusation, or court order is mandatory regardless of the date of the event. Each volunteer candidacy is evaluated individually. Operation Red Nose reserves the right to accept or refuse any volunteer application at its sole discretion, in accordance with applicable laws. Even if an offence does not appear explicitly in the selection criteria mentioned herein, Operation Red Nose reserves the right to refuse a candidacy on the grounds of the nature, gravity, or moment of the offence, accusation, or court order. In conformity with the principles of the Charter of Rights and Freedoms, only prior infractions that are in direct connection with functions associated with the chosen volunteer role will be considered. This approach aims at ensuring a safe environment for all volunteers, partners, and clients, while respecting the rights of all volunteer candidates.

Criminal Offences
- ☐ I have not been found guilty of a criminal offence in Canada or abroad, or if I have, I have received a pardon (record suspension).

CONSENT AND COMMITMENT OF THE VOLUNTEER

I authorize Operation Red Nose (ORN) and any police service with jurisdiction over any or all parts of the province in which I reside to conduct a criminal record check to ensure that I meet the selection criteria set out by ORN that appear on the back of this form. However, only judicial background that ORN deems to be incompatible with the volunteer's assignment will be taken into account. If my assignment requires the driving of a road vehicle, I authorize ORN and any police force to check the validity of my driver's licence. I also give my consent to the police force to forward the results of the background checks to ORN. A false declaration will result in the refusal of the application. Furthermore, between the time I submit this form and the time I participate as a volunteer, I will inform ORN of any new charge(s) against me relating to an offence and any conviction(s) in connection with such an offence. In accordance with the relevant legislation, ORN and its representative agree to protect the confidentiality of all information and data about the organization's clients and volunteers. Any declaration form that has not been signed or that contains unanswered questions will be considered incomplete and returned to sender. I also agree to comply with the volunteer commitment set out on the back of this form, which I have read and understood. I certify that the information provided in this declaration is accurate and complete.

VOLUNTEER COMMITMENT

I agree to:

- Take all necessary precaution to ensure the safety of my team and of Operation Red Nose clients by complying with, among others, the Road Safety Code (speed limits, use of seatbelts, signage, parking, etc.). Operation Red Nose is not responsible for any ticket received during the course of my volunteer duties.
- Comply with the Operation Red Nose code of ethics:
  - Sobriety: I will not consume any alcohol or cannabis on any day I intend to participate as an Operation Red Nose volunteer.
  - Confidentiality: All information about Operation Red Nose clients and volunteers that is disclosed to me will remain confidential and will not be used for any purpose other than to fulfill the mandate conferred upon me. Even with my volunteer colleagues, I will also not discuss any details that could be used to identify a client or a volunteer.
  - Courtesy: I will show patience and courtesy toward clients at all times.
  - Free service: Operation Red Nose is a free service. I may not ask for donations, but I may inform the client they are welcome to make one. If a donation is made, I offer sincere thanks to the person making it.
  - Fatigue: Operation Red Nose volunteers often have to deal with becoming tired and sleepy, as we usually sleep between 2AM and 6AM. It is important to not underestimate the effects of sleepiness. Consequently, I will not overestimate my capacities, and if necessary, I will take a nap before going to headquarters as an Operation Red Nose volunteer.
  - Respect between volunteers and toward staff members: All Operation Red Nose volunteers, whether they work in headquarters or on the road, as well as organization staff members, deserve my respect and consideration at all times.
- Return to Operation Red Nose all amounts given to me (donations, tips, gifts, etc.)

If I do not honour my commitment, Operation Red Nose reserves the right to terminate my participation as a volunteer for the current and future campaigns.
The decision of Operation Red Nose is final.
