

fast facts

- 52,000 people immigrated to Manitoba between 2001 and 2007
- Immigration rates are expected to double over the next decade, with 1,000 additional immigrants expected each year – that means 20,000 people will come to Manitoba in 2017
- Male immigrants are two times more likely to have work related injuries than their Canadian-born colleagues
- Male immigrants are also 30% less likely to work fulltime, 65% less likely to have employment benefits and 40% more likely to be over-qualified for jobs
- Manitoba's immigrant population is currently made up of people from 150 countries for more information visit www.safetyservicesmanitoba.ca

MANITOBA IMMIGRANTS' SAFETY INITIATIVE