Safety Resource Officer

Don't need a full time safety professional or can't afford one?

SSM supplies qualified health and safety professionals on a contract basis to suit your needs.

An on-site safety resource officer can assist you with:

- Job task analysis, incident investigation and workplace inspections
- Policy development
- Managing OHS Committee meetings
- Advising union and management on OHS issues
- Random compliance audits
- Developing Standard Operating Procedures for high-risk jobs
- Developing customized training unique to your workplace

SSM's Safety Resource Officer program offers you:

- No recruitment cost or time
- No need to pay benefits such as sick time, holidays or EI
- Access to the expertise and resources of SSM

Get the expertise of a qualified safety professional for as little as $450 per day!
